Dear Friends,
Even before the season of Lent took its formal shape in the fourth century, Christians observed a period of preparation for Easter. This was especially true for those preparing for holy Baptism. We have an adult member of our church who will be giving his accent to enter into the Catechumenate, an official designation as a time to prepare for baptism which, in this case, will take place during Eastertide. While adult baptisms became less common in the church's second millennium, it was very common during the church's first thousand years. I expect that the church will continue to see a rise in adult baptisms in the third millennium. I encourage you to pray for those seeking baptism both in our parish and throughout the church. We are all encouraged during Lent to pray, attend church, give alms, and spend time with the scriptures.

Blessings, Marc

Deuterocanonical Bible Study

On Wednesdays we will be studying some of the Deuterocanonical texts. Deuterocanonical means “second canon”. They are books the Anglican Communion has decided are worth reading in church and studying, but we do not base doctrine on them. What is clear to scholars is that the New Testament writers alluded to them and quoted from them revealing they held no such distinction. Many of these stories were very familiar to earlier Christians but are less so today. Some are a little strange, some are entertaining, and there is some fine poetry present. The Deuterocanonical books were written at different times by different people, but they tend to focus on the period from the building of the second temple to the birth of Christ. If you have always wondered what those funny books in the middle of your Bible are, come and see on Wednesdays at 12:30 pm during Lent. Sessions will be in-person and through Zoom. Please let Marc know if you need a zoom link.

Lenten Series – Letty Naigles and Andy Burr will be leading our Lenten Series this year, focusing on the House of Bishops’ pastoral teaching that challenges The Episcopal Church to face the urgency of the environmental crisis and to take bold and faithful action as an expression of our love for God and God’s creation. We will be using materials developed by Bishop Ely, Rev. Jerry Cappel, and ECCT’s own Rev. Stephanie Johnson. They created lessons which invite reflection, prayer and engagement with the Bishops’ call for a flourishing life for all creation, and we look forward to sharing these with the parish. We will be meeting on five consecutive Thursdays beginning Feb. 26, 2026, for supper at 6pm followed by a different lesson each Thursday, ending with Eucharist. You are welcome to join us for however many sessions you can. Feel free to reach out to Letty and/or Andy with any questions.

Lenten Diaper Drive - St. John's will be collecting diapers, pull-ups and wipes beginning now until Palm Sunday, March 29th. All sizes are needed and donations will benefit Gentle Love Connections, a regional non-profit providing diapers/wipes to families who are in need.
